Women of Achievement Nomination Form

Award Descriptions and Criteria for Nominations:

Celebration Award: Nominee has achieved exceptional success and a certain status of recognition in her field while upholding the ideals and mission of Zonta. The winner is selected by the WOA committee in June and is notified prior to the luncheon.

Lifetime Achievement Award: Nominee has been dedicated and served many years in her field or has recently retired. The nominee has made tremendous strides and a lasting legacy on our community. The winner is selected by the Zonta Club of Cape in July or August and is notified prior to the luncheon.

Woman of Achievement Award: Nominee is a local community leader who is accomplished and has contributed to our community while also excelling in her field. The nominee may also be a volunteer that goes above and beyond to improve the community. The nominees (typically 5-7) are vetted and the winner is selected by members of another Zonta Club outside of the Cape area and awarded at the luncheon.

*Celebration and Lifetime Achievement Award winners and Women of Achievement nominees from the last 5 years should not be considered.
